EARLY BEGINNINGS

- My name is Fedelis mwendwa nzomo, and I was born on July 27, 1998, in misuuni area, a lush area within kangundo, machakos County.
- The rainy season marked my birth, symbolizing new beginnings and growth for my family, deeply rooted in farming.

Family Heritage

- ❖ Named after my great-grandfather, mwanzia, I inherited a legacy of hard work and integrity.
- ❖ His stories inspired me, instilling pride and a sense of responsibility to uphold our family values.

Farming Roots

- ❖ Growing up, farming was central to our lives.
- ❖ I learned the importance of sustainable living, respect for nature, and the value of hard work from my parents

Childhood Adventures

- ❖ Exploring the natural beauty of misuuni nurtured my curiosity and love for nature.
- ❖ I developed a deep connection with the land, learning the importance of conservation and stewardship.

Sibling Bonds

- ❖ As the youngest of four siblings, I looked up to my brothers and sister for guidance.
- ❖ They taught me invaluable life lessons and inspired me to strive for excellence.

Early Education

- ❖ My educational journey began at kayole community Primary School, where I was nurtured by dedicated teachers like Madam ann and mr Owino.
- ❖ Through hands-on learning and exploration, I developed a passion for Computers.

Transition to Secondary School

- ❖ Transitioning to Masinga Boys marked a new chapter in my life.
- ❖ The school's commitment to academic excellence and innovation fueled my thirst for knowledge and personal growth.
