

Figure 1 "Daily Journey for Water: Women and children trek long distances to fetch water from distant sources."

*Figure 2*Waiting in Line: Community members queue up at a crowded water point for their daily water supply."

*Figure 3*Life Source: A traditional well serves as a crucial but limited water source for the community."

Figure 4Polluted Waters: A river used for bathing and washing, highlighting the challenges of water pollution

Figure 5 "Water for Survival: A woman carefully manages limited water for cooking and household chores

Figure 6 "Hygiene Struggles: Children make do with scarce water for basic hygiene practices."

Figure 7 Healthcare Challenges: A child receives treatment for a waterborne illness, highlighting the health risks."

Figure 8 Educating for Health: Community sessions raise awareness about water-related diseases and prevention

Figure 9"Community Initiative: Volunteers work on installing a water purification system to improve water quality.

Figure 10 Youth Engagement: Children participate in water conservation activities, showing community-driven efforts

Figure 11 "Innovative Solutions: Solar-powered water pumps offer a sustainable approach to water access."

Figure 12 Learning Sustainability: Community members discuss and learn about sustainable water management practices.